

Hi [First Name],

My team and I at University of the Pacific are impressed by what you've accomplished in high school so far. We want to support you as you start thinking about your next steps, so we made a guide to help you identify colleges that speak the most to you. It's called Join the Roar: 5 Keys to Finding an Amazing College Experience, and it's designed to do just that—help you find the best university experience for you.

Experience learning like never before at University of the Pacific. Dive into one of our 80+ undergraduate programs where hands-on, experiential education comes to life. I also invite you to explore Pacific's historic campus from the comfort of your home. Discover how our Tigers live, dine, study and play at California's first university.

Plus, you can see for yourself why Pacific students get the best of both worlds—big-university choice and small-college caring—when you Join the Roar.

I look forward to learning more about you and being in touch!

Best,
